graveyard sequence, is Guido's mother. On the walls are the clerics' portraits.

Fellini is sitting on a block of wood near Maria Tedeschi, the father superior. After two or three silent takes, Fellini asks her to speak her lines:

"You should speak very low—no one need hear what you're saying.